Dear Mr. Hart:

Thank you for your letter of 1 November 1960 to Mr. Dulles regarding the possibility that he might do a brief introduction to an omnibus of three of Ian Fleming's previously published books.

Mr. Dulles has a policy of not doing anything of this character while he is in his present Government position. He receives many such requests but he will not make an exception to the policy.

We are sure you will appreciate the necessity for this position. Thank you for your inquiry.

Sincerely,

/s/
Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
